AUDITING PRESIDING ELDERS' ACCOUNTS.

We your committee on auditing presiding elders' accounts beg leave to submit the report. We have carefully examined the books and found them correctly balanced and signed.

Respectfully submitted,

A. D. Brown, D. Salters, C. L. Logan,
W. B. Roman, G. W. Gantt, W. J. Smith,
H. C. Asbury, C. H. Harleston.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCES.

We your committee on benevolences beg leave to say that while there are more varied and important interest demanding the attention of the earnest and faithful pastor, none are more important than the benevolences. Hence it should be the sincere wish of every pastor that it may be his to work successfully along this line as well as along all others.

When we remember that the church cannot maintain its present position, to say nothing of the impossibility of its strengthening its stakes, or enlarging its borders without the sinews of war, which sinews must come up through the collection of the benevolences. We cannot fail to recognize the fact that a great responsibility rests upon us. To our hands has been committed the work of carrying on the great interest of our Master's kingdom. We must occupy until He comes. But occupation implies advancement and enlargement. These cannot come without the accepted means or medium of trade, or, in plain language, money. As pastors we are to raise the money needed to carry on this work of occupation. The question arises are we awake to a proper realization of the important responsibilities resting upon us? Are we doing our best to keep in motion the onward and upward march of the Church of God?

It is especially gratifying to be able to report that there has been an appreciable advance in the collections for the present year, and that the Church at large is thoroughly aroused to the great work committed to its hands.

Respectfully submitted,
E. B. Burroughs, B. F. Witherspoon, S. D. Williams,
W. T. Thomas, W. S. Neal, J. C. Burch, A. B. Murphy.

BOOK CONCERN.

Your committee on the Book Concern and Publishing interest beg leave to submit the following report:

We are pleased to say that our publishing houses both East and West have a very successful year. This is seen from the very large sale of books and periodicals. The Christian Advocate continue to increase in circulation, and is a substantial revenue for the house. The Methodist Review and Epworth Herald also show a profit. The South Western Christian Advocate is making wonderful progress. It is of a high order editorially and mechanically. The other Advocates are doing well. Our Sunday school periodicals are the best published anywhere, and their circulation has increased by more than 400,000 in subscriptions in the past three years. The object of the Book Concern is not to make money but rather to advance the Cause of Christ by the use of the press. We are able this year to declare a dividend of $120,000, an increase of $10,000 over last year's dividend; of which amount $1,053 came to our conference, an increase of $95 over last year. We wish to say that the pastors and presiding elders have labored to promote the circulation of our literature thereby increasing the business and promoting the good name of our Book Concern.

Respectfully submitted, J. P. Robinson, for committee.

DIVISION OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

The Commission appointed at the last annual conference on the division of the South Carolina Conference, met at Sumter, S. C., Sept. 27, 1905, to consider the advisability of dividing and to recommend suitable plans for division in case the Conference deems it proper to divide.

ITEM 1.

PLANS OF DIVISION.

No. 1. We recommend a line beginning at the North East corner of Lancaster County, and running south with the east boundary line north of that county and the following counties: Fairfield, Richland, Lexington and Aiken making an eastern and western division of the State.

No. 2. This plan divides the conference so as to throw four districts in the Northern Conference and four in the Southern Conference. Each district is to remain as it now stands.

J. B. Middleton, Chairman Commission.
J. W. Moultrie, Secretary.

ITEM 2.

ADVISABILITY OF DIVISION.

The Commission, after prayerful consideration unanimously adopted the following resolution.

"That on presenting plans for the division of the South Carolina Conference we do not express an opinion as to the advisability of a division at this time, but we simply present the foregoing plans in case the Conference decides to divide.

Very respectfully,

J. B. Middleton, Chairman.
J. W. Moultrie, Secretary.

EDUCATION, F. A. S. E. SOCIETY, OTHER SCHOOLS

We beg leave to present the following report. Believing as we do that the greatness of any country, race or people cannot exceed the greatness of its Schools, Colleges and Seminaries; the thoroughness of its system of public education. We note with pleasure inexpressible the great awakening through this country along this particular line. We regard ignorance as the most dangerous and potent foe to any civilized institution, threatening at all times the very foundation upon which the principles of good government rest. It was that noble hearted, patriotic american, soldier and educator, Gen. Samuel Chaplain Armstrong, founder of Hampton Institute who said: "The Bible and the spelling book should be put in every hand that holds the ballot. The need of the times is intelligence and conscience through sound education." The system of public education in our state, especially as it relates to our people, fails vastly short of meeting the demands upon us. For many years the profits of the dispensaries throughout the state, have been turned into the fund provided for the public instruction of the youths of the state. Our people, 'tho unfortunately the largest contributors to this fund, receive very little of its profits. The salaries of the teachers of our race have been so reduced, that our best prepared teachers have given up this profession for more remunerative avocations. Incompetent teachers have been mustered in, against the protest of our best people to shape the lives and mould the characters of our boys and girls. Your committee observes with pleasure, that in many parts of our country and especially within the bounds of this Conference, Primary, Secondary, Elementary and Industrial schools are springing up here and there. And we note with joy, the great work they are doing in dispelling ignorance, curbing vice, suppressing immorality and uplifting our people in general.

F. A. S. E. SOCIETY

The Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society was organized, in 1866. Though the product of the mind of man, it was nevertheless the creature of God, brought upon the field of battle precisely at the proper time and dedicated to a unique, yet broad and comprehensive feature of the work, in giving freedom of the mind to the freedmen and needy white people of the south. Its work has been well done. The Schools, Colleges, Seminaries and Universities it has founded, are not its most enduring monuments, but the changing of the "Leopard Spots." The transformation of human souls from conditions of ignorance and degraded conditions the bringing to pass of the prophecy that Ethiopia should stretch forth her hands to God, the army of its consecrated teachers, ministers and leaders, are monuments more beautiful, more powerful, more enduring than marble. Thank God for the F. A. and S. E. Society of the M. E. Church. Thank God for Dr. M. C. B. Mason its Senior secretary, himself one of its products. During the next year it will celebrate with appropriate service its fortieth birthday anniversary. We would earnestly recommend that this anniversary be observed by each of our circuits and stations throughout the Conference. We further recommend that the $3700 asked by the Society for the ensuing year be apportioned by the Presiding Elders among their several districts, and all of the amount raised.

Your committee feels justly proud of the loyal support this Society have received at the hands of our pastors and people, but it does seem to us, that the great South Carolina Conference can easily raise $15,000 annually for this cause, and we would urge that great efforts be put forth to accomplish this end. We would urge our pastors throughout the Conference to observe with fitting service the observance of Lincoln's birthday, and recommend that they use literature prepared for this purpose by the Secretaries of the F. A. and S. E. Society.

CLAFLIN AND OTHER SCHOOLS

We especially commend the noble work now being done at Claflin University, Orangeburg, S. C., Browning Home, Camden, S. C., Sterling College, Greenville, S. C., and Providence Normal and Industrial School, Cowpens, S. C., and pledge these worthy institutions our liberal patronage and support. We recommend that Sterling College and Providence Normal and Industrial School be taken in charge by the F. A. and S. E. Society and made feeders for Claflin University.

We commend heartily the great self-sacrificing work that is now being done at Claflin by Dr. and Mrs. Dunton, and hope that adequate manifestation of our appreciation of their untiring services in the uplift of our people, may so encourage them that they will decide to withdraw their resignation as President and Financial Secretary of this great school with which they have been so long connected. We heartily endorse the resolution adopted by this Conference at its present session, pledging itself to raise $5000 for the installing of a heating plant at Claflin.

We note with pleasure the establishment of the John C. Martin Divinity School at Claflin, and the appointment of Rev. A. S. J. Brown as its Dean. The School has at its head, a man possessing the essential qualification, a graduate of Claflin and of Gammon, gives your committee perfect satisfaction, and we would urge that all prospective candidates for the ministry now in attendance at Claflin be advised to avail themselves of the opportunity this department affords.

GAMMON

We endorse the great work being accomplished at Gammon, in preparing our young men for the ministry, and recommend that the young men constantly seeking admission into our Conference, and those who are contemplating entering the ministry be urged to attend Gammon, before doing so.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

We most heartily commend the excellent work for higher Christian education which is being accomplished for the Church through the Board of Education. We especially approve the emphasis which is being laid upon the Christian ideals. We urge that Children's Day be observed and that a collection be taken on every charge according to the Discipline. During the past year the Board has assisted 1,957 young people to pursue their studies in the institutions of our own Church. Since the beginning of the work of our Society more than thirteen thousand students have been so assisted. It will thus be seen that the work which is being done by this Board is very vital to the present and future welfare of the Church.

We commend the Christian Student to all our people as a very useful publication, touching the question of educational interests and methods.

We earnestly commend all our Christian institutions to our people of means. The Christian college was never more of a necessity than it is today. Its work is very essential not only to our own branch of the church but to the very perpetuity of our Republic. There is no finer opportunity for investment than that which is afforded by the Christian school.

We are pleased to note that the work of the Board has been helpful within the territory of our own Conference. During the past year students residing in our own territory were assisted to the number of 52, and to the amount of $1319. The contributions of our Conference received by the Board were $557.62. We urge every charge within our Conference to become a regular contributor to the fund.

DREW UNIVERSITY

Your committee acknowledges with pleasure, the receipt of a communication referred to it by the Management of Drew Theological Seminary. We note with deep interest the efficiency and thoroughness of the work they are doing in this school of our church.

GENERAL

Last year the State of South Carolina appropriated less than $1.25 per capita for the public education of its colored scholars. If "a little learning is a dangerous thing," we have more to dread than to hope for in the operation of the present system of public schools in this State. We would call the attention of our people to the fact, that now as never before in our history are we expected to furnish the forces to be used in our own uplift, the funds to support our schools, and to supplement the common schools throughout the State. Having been largely carried by our friends for forty years we should now have sufficient strength to carry ourselves. We therefore urge our people to greater liberality and larger giving to the educational interests of our beloved Methodism.

All of which is respectfully submitted,
D. H. Kearse, J. A. Brown, D. M. Minus, R. A. Cottingham,
J. B. Thomas, I. E. Lowery, J. B. Taylor, P. R. Camlin.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

We your committee on the District Conference Records, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have carefully examined the minutes of the following Districts: Sumter, Spartanburg and Greenville presented. We found the minutes of these Districts in good shape, and reflect much credit on the brethren of these Districts.

Respectfully,

S. A. King; W. M. R. Eaddy; J. W. Groves; I. L. Hardy;
G. W. Williams; J. S. Tyler; L. L. Thomas.

W. H. AND F. MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

We hail with delight, the noble work being done by these societies; both at home and in foreign fields. They are not only great auxiliaries of the mission board, but the spontaneous response to the Macedonian Cry, "Come Over And Help Us."

With these schools and workers stationed here and there, their influence is felt throughout the great church and country.

Our own Browning Home at Camden, S. C., and the Simpson Home at Orangeburg, S. C. are two of these, ever active, in preparing the head, heart and hand for the uplift of humanity and the mighty spread of Christ's kingdom. And we pray that God may continue to bless them, and give them a larger share in the salvation of the world.

Respectfully submitted,

D. J. Sanders; W. B. Bowers; A. Lewis; B. M. Pegues
Stewart Simpson; L. L. Butler C. B. Lowery.

COMMITTEE ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

Your committee beg leave to submit the following report:

In pursuance to previous actions taken by this conference, your committee presents this report touching the Epworth League and Sunday Schools of our Church. The Epworth League in its design is fully calculated to meet and fill a long felt want among the young people, and where ever it has its chapters with the right kind of officers and having the support of the pastor in charge, great and permanent good has been done. Therefore we conclude that the Epworth League if allowed to live in the hearts of our pastors, who will acquire an intelligent understanding of its workings, what it has done in the past, what it is doing to-day and what it is designed to do in the future, it will not only live but flourish on every charge where there is the smallest Sunday School. And thus we heartily endorse and recommend that our pastors co-operate heartily with prof. I. Garland Penn, Assistant General Secretary of the Epworth League, in his untiring efforts to make this institution one of magnitude, far reaching in influence and power.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

This organization is almost as old as that of the Church and it has done its work well among our young people, and is doing better work now, indeed, it is to us the M. E. Church organized, where God's word is constantly and faithfully taught by Christian teachers, raising the standard of living among them higher.

Your committee commend and recommend the work of our own Dr. C. C. Jacobs as Field Agent in the eastern section of our Sunday School work, and pray God's blessing upon him. We recommend also and urge that the conference should have the names of the Sunday-school superintendents of each pastoral charge printed in our conference minutes, the same to be handed in to the Secretary by the pastors at his conference, and the address of each one.

Respectfully,

R. C. Campbell, for committee.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

To the Members of the Preachers' Aid Society, Greetings:

Dear Brethren:—I am profoundly grateful to God for the privilege of meeting you in another annual session. It is gratifying to note that we have had no deaths among our members during the year.

For a brief period during the year sickness prostrated and enervated brothers; J. W. Brown, York Goodlett and F. L. Baxter. Brother Baxter's case is of a serious nature, he is still under medical treatment and well nigh despaired of recovery.

Let me again urge you to devise some plan by which we may increase the funds of our organization, as at present it is difficult to provide sick and death benefits.

Respectfully submitted,

A. G. Townsend, President.

STERLING INDUSTRIAL COLLEGE.

This Institution has Kindergarten, Intermediate, Normal, Licentiate of Instruction and College Preparatory departments, having been recognized recently by the State Board of Education.

This has been the most prosperous year in the history of the college, more than $4000 having been raised for all purposes. A most glorious revival was conducted in the college and several students professed saving faith in Christ.

We have the largest enrollment to-date we have ever had. Our board of trustees consists of white and colored men, and the best feeling prevail among them.

The college farm has almost doubled itself on all lines.

The Sunday School, the Epworth League, the Young Men's Christian Association, the Friends of Africa, and the Literary Society are still in excellent condition. We are preparing to fit up the boys' dormitory. The trustees did a wise thing when they asked the president of the college to give his entire time to its interests. In spite of oppositions, the institution is making its way toward the top of the ladder.

Greenville, S. C.

Respectfully,
D. M. Minus, President.

SABBATH AND TEMPERANCE.

Your committee begs lief to submit the following report: We regret to state that the American people are still wilfully disobeying the divine injunction; Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy. The moral law from "Sinai's smoking peak," seems to have little or no bearing upon the minds of many thousands of our citizens.

Sunday excursions, dancing, drinking and gambling are some of the evils indulged in on the Lord's Day, almost with impunity. We appeal to our officials of the nation, the state and the municipalities for their hearty co-operation in enforcing Sabbath observance in our christian land.

The liquor traffic is one of the great barriers to America's moral progress. Nearly $4,000,000 worth of the vile stuff was sold this year in our state under the Dispensary Law. We rejoice however, that fifteen counties of our state voted out the dispensary. Your committee rejoices that our Ministry and laity are strongly united and are at work for the supremacy of law and order, and the support of all moral questions affecting the commonwealth of which we form a part.

Respectfully.

J. McEaddy, J. A. Harrall.

THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY AND THE CHURCH.

The skyline of our country's greatness describes a circle so vast in its area that a thorough examination and careful analysis would be too lengthy to be read at any one sitting of our annual conference, or printed in our annual minutes. However, as your committee we beg to submit the following:

OUR COUNTRY.

We rejoice over the great and numerous opportunities Divine Providence has placed within our national domain—opportunities for working out problems, social, political, moral and spiritual.

We rejoice further that we live in this land with its high type of Christian civilization, its many schools, academies and universities, and whose Chief Executive is a living exponent of "the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man." Great possibilities are already seen above the horizon; yet, by the maintenance and practice of righteousness as our national foundation, untold blessings may still be awaiting us as we move forward in time. While we are grateful for all this, we do not mean to report a clear sky. Clouds float above us and around us, some are fraught with rain, some have dark forebodings, some black out of which come mighty peals of thunder and the glare of the forked lightening threatening the dogged caste system, ostracism, banishment and even extinction to a portion of our people. But remembering that there is the silver lining to every cloud, we take courage and move on hoping for the best.

Worldiness is broad cast over our land. Lynching still goes on, and murders are numerous. Gambling is still practiced even to the very thresholds of our sacred shrines. Intemperance is still seizing the youth of our land, unfitting them for usefulness and filling thousands of drunkards' graves.

Sabbath desecration still marshals a great host and is enticing vast multitudes along its broad and deceptive way.

Un-christian Sunday papers, Sunday excursions, mormonism, manhood of the weak crushed down by the strong. These and many others are the evil clouds that spot and darken our country's sky and demand our united, continued and most energetic efforts and sober judgment.

Conditions obtain in our country that require the creation and assertion of the best and keenest moral and religious sentiment of our national life to overcome. This is a necessity. When an evil incurs the righteous indignation of a united people, its existence is marked for death.

Every effort should be used to create public sentiment against the sale of intoxicating liquors. The moral sense of the nation should assert itself against this blighting evil. Its crushing tread is felt in city and country. Its hellish shrieks and blasphemies are heard in streets and highways. Its destructive work is seen in the various relations of domestic life. Its pollution menaces public life. Its fruitless promise and wages of death are abundantly shown in every graveyard. "Is it nothing to you all ye that pass by?"

The enlightened moral sense of the nation, the state and the race is needed to close this gateway to hell. Let every true watchman cry aloud and spare not. Sentiment must be aroused against the infuriated mobs and their diabolical work of lynching human beings. Let us invoke the majesty of the law, the chief executives of the states and of the nation in the suppression of this evil. We plead for every alleged criminal, black or white, a trial by jury. That is the inalienable right of every citizen of our country. A mobbish spirit undermines and destroys the force of law. When the law becomes weak no man's life is safe. While we plead the effacement of this stigma from our national escutcheon let every intelligent and law abiding layman and minister throughout the land speak and preach against every form of wickedness that may give rise to the spirit of lynching.

We are pleased to report that light is being turned on political corruption, municipal, state and national. While no beneficial signs may be visible to the race of color, yet being built into the national fabric by the omniscient Master-builder, we shall have our day when fraud and intimidation and all kindred evils shall have been trampled down and destroyed. In the midst of disfranchisement, oppression and every other disadvantage to which we are subjected, let us not fret because of evil doers. Let us trust God and do good, and the same God that made out of one blood all nations that dwell upon the face of the earth shall protect and provide for us.

Socially we are in the period of adjustment. When the press and people all over our country shall have discussed all phases of the race question, and the vote of an intelligent public sentiment is cast, the decisive conflict will be ended, and the result will be satisfactory to all concerned. We must accustom ourselves to confront prejudice, and walk straight through as though there were no such condition.

Politically the country is safe, though the dark cloud still hangs over the citizens of color. Laws are made and constitutions are framed aiming especially to be a throwback to the dusky sons of Ham; but this should only intensify our ambition to break every barrier down; should only nerve us for the great conflict before us, the mighty racial problem to be solved.

There are many things to which we are subjected that gall our shoulders and dampen our pride, but as a race we realize that we are but apprentices and students. We are learning the art of state craft well. Graduation day is coming, so now is the time for endurance and sacrifice; then we shall enjoy the rewards of patience. Now is the time to instill those qualities that shall count for stanch citizenship, then we shall possess the precious heritage which is always the outcome of industry, self-reliance and Christian virtues.

THE CHURCH.

The prime mission of the Church is to draw and wed men to the principles of the gospel as taught by Jesus Christ. Her godly and self-sacrificing heroes and heroines are carrying the gospel over hills and mountains, over plains and valleys, crossing seas, penetrating deserts and jungles, and seem determined that every nation and people and tongue to earth's remotest bounds shall learn Messiah's name.

Thank God the Church is not indolent, but active in all its departments. It still supplies comfort to mourning hearts, furnishes the balm for broken and contrite spirits, is still the sanitarium where sin sick and diseased souls may be brought in the presence of the Great Physician and be made whole. The spirit of the Church is still aggressive. Going out into the highways she is compelling men to come to the great feast.

The Church's aim is to save the individual; so mold, and shape him that he will become more and more like the Divine Image whom he serves in this life, till he shall be ushered into eternal life where he will become entirely like Him, seeing Him as he is. We are thankful that the great Church is doing this work.

The Church is yet alive along all the lines of her projected activities. Her benevolent organizations still fulfill their mission and thrive. But, Dear brethren, worldliness, we fear, is spreading among us. Many men in the church are becoming lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God. The zeal for the House of God is not according to the righteousness of Jesus Christ.

We appeal for a more distinct line of demarkation between the Church and the world—between the works of the spirit and the works of the flesh. The watchmen upon the walls of Zion must possess an eternal hatred for sin in every form, more and more shun the very appearance of evil, and learn that duty is far above a good salary, the feeling and pride of influential members, and even life itself.

As one branch of the Christian Church we must give more attention to, if we would sustain the pristine spiritual fire of Methodism; the love feast, the class meeting, the prayer meeting; they need numbers, and more of the fire of the Holy Ghost. The spiritual life of the church depends largely upon the spiritual life of these meetings. We must restore to these services their former life and activities.

The life of individuals just from the presence of Jesus is a great check to all forms of unrighteousness. Our sense of Christian ethics needs to be stimulated. Forms of ungodliness approach too dangerously near to the spiritual magazine of our church life. Too often we verify the poet's lines:

Vice is a monster of so frightful mien,
As to be hated needs but to be seen;
Yet seen too oft, familiar with her face,
We first endure, then pity, then embrace.

While these forms of sin confront the Church we are not discouraged. God still lives and is working in the church and through the church. The gospel still has power to vanish the forces of darkness. Let the ministry be faithful. Let us fight the battles of the Lord according to his commands. In doing so the clash of arms today will be the song of victory tomorrow.

Respectfully,

J. D. Whitaker, for committee.

RESOLUTIONS.

BENEVOLENT INSTITUTES

In view of the fact that the constantly increasing business of the conference and a constantly increasing number of representatives of the connectional interests of the church are present annually to represent their work; and, whereas, each year a number of representatives of various benevolent and other institutions and enterprises visit our annual conference for the purpose of making addresses and obtaining contributions to aid them in their work; and, whereas, it is impossible, unless by previous arrangement, to give each of these non-connectional representatives proper attention and consideration, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That hereafter any of them desiring to visit the conference for the purpose aforementioned must correspond and arrange with the pastor and the presiding elder of the charge, at least thirty days before the meeting of the conference and receive their approval.

Respectfully,

C. C. Scott.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' FUND.

Whereas, For the lack of better information there is some dissatisfaction each year, owing to the distribution of the fund of the conference claimants; and, whereas, a new method may be adopted which will facilitate the distribution of the fund and render a more equitable allowance to the claimants, therefore,

Resolved 1, That this conference appoint a permanent board of stewards to serve the claimants annually,

Resolved 2, That a permanent record be made of all claimants upon this fund from time to time as occasion requires, and that the amount paid each claimant be entered in said record with his receipt for same,

Resolved 3, That the chairman of the board do ascertain each year the condition of each claimant from the pastors, presiding elders and such other sources of information as are available to complete the list of said claimants upon the avails of the fund dedicated to this important interest, and said list of claimants to be submitted to the conference annually for its approval or otherwise.

Respectfully,

F. D. Smith, A. E. Quick, W. M. Hanna,
A. G. Kennedy, N. T. Bowen, Sr.

TO DR. AND MRS. DUNTON.

Whereas, we have listened with peculiar pride, delight and interest to President Dunton's 23d annual report, and,

Whereas, we have with sorrow learned of the resignation of Dr. and Mrs. Dunton, President and Financial Agent respectively of Claflin University, to take effect at the close of this scholastic year,

Resolved 1, That we congratulate President Dunton on his splendid report and indorse his plans, and cheerfully pledge ourselves to continue our hearty co-operation in the work,

Resolved 2, That we place on record our unqualified appreciation of the faithful, efficient and conscientious services of Dr. and Mrs. Dunton for so many years, and that we recognize their marvelous financial tact and executive ability in the conduct of the many varied, and difficult affairs of Claflin, which particularly fit them for this work, and,

Resolved 3, That we request Dr. and Mrs. Dunton to withdraw their resignation, to hold on and hold fast to Claflin until the Master says, "Come up higher."

Respectfully,

W. R. A. Palmer, E. B. Burroughs, R. L. Hickson,
A. G. Townsend, B. F. Witherspoon, A. E. Quick,
W. M. Hanna, L. G. Gregg, W. G. Valentine,
J. E. Wilson, J. R. Townsend, G. W. Cooper,
M. M. Mouzon.

DIVISION OF CONFERENCE.

Be It Resolved, That it is the sense of this conference that we do not now Divide.

Respectfully,

W. R. A. Palmer.

NEW PRESIDING ELDER DISTRICT.

Resolved, That this conference ask the Bishop and his cabinet to form one or more new presiding elder districts, because of the great need of the expansion of our branch of Methodism in South Carolina.

A. G. Townsend,
R. L. Hickson.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION.

Whereas, It has been announced that a Missionary Convention for the South Carolina Conference will be held at Claflin University during the month of March, 1906, under the direction and control of Dr. G. G. Logan, Field Secretary, Be It Resolved, That we heartily endorse the same, and hereby pledge our co operation to help make it a splendid and creditable success.

E. B. Burroughs.

RECEPTION OF MEMBERS.

Whereas, our annual conference is rapidly growing in point of intelligence and in numerical strength; and whereas she demands a better prepared ministry than formerly; and whereas, our schools are prepared to furnish such requirement; and whereas, there is a growing disposition on the part of young men to enter the ministry without making the necessary preparation,

Be It Resolved, That hereafter we admit only those who at least have equipped themselves with a good English education.

D. J. Sanders,
J. P. Robinson,
J. B. Thomas.

MEMOIRS

BISHOP ISAAC W. JOYCE.

A little less than ten years ago the South Carolina Conference was honored with the presence and godly counsel of Bishop Isaac W. Joyce, who came to us at Camden, S. C., for the first time as our presiding officer. His beautiful temperament patient and considerate manner, and his generous nature so impressed both the pastors and the presiding elders that from beginning to end a most genial atmosphere pervaded the conference. Selecting as his text, Luke the 5th chapter and the first four verses, and as his theme, "The Salvation of Sinners," he preached on conference Sunday one of the most powerful sermons ever heard by any of the members of this conference. The effect was almost indescribable. As a result, before the services of the day were ended twelve souls had been happily converted and scores were upon their knees crying for mercy.

On the 2d of July last, while preaching at Red Rock, Minn., he was smitten with paralysis and after lingering for three weeks, died in Minneapolis, Minn., the place of his Episcopal residence, on the 28th of the month.

Converted early in life and entered the ministry before arriving at the age of manhood, he practically spent his whole life as an itinerant preacher, for he was eminently a preacher. As pastor, presiding elder and Bishop, he filled the positions acceptably and successfully.

As president of the Epworth League, his services were of incalculable value. The world wide traveler has ended his journey. The sympathetic and compassionate man, will be forever missed; the tongue of the eloquent and evangelistic preacher is forever silent; the valiant soldier of the cross of Christ has fallen upon the field of battle with his armor on. He fought a good fight; he kept the faith; he has finished his course; he has received his crown.

After he had been borne from the pulpit to his tent on the Camp Ground; he said: "None of you know what labor I have gone through, and if it is God's will that I go now, I would as soon go from here as any where." "The power and triumph of the Gospel," was the theme of his last sermon. His last words were: "I have preached this blessed Gospel in almost every country under the sun, and every where it has the same blessed effect upon men that it has here at Red-Rock." Doubtless his wish was granted.

Happy if with my latest breath,
I may but preach his name
To all, and cry in death;
Behold, behold the lamb.

We had been looking forward with pleasure to the time of his coming again among us to preside over the sessions of this Conference. But God has willed otherwise.

Farewell, honored bishop,
In the church of God;
Farewell, beloved pastor and friend.
When the roll is called on high,
We will be there.

Be it therefore resolved, that while the members of the South Carolina Conference bow in submission to the will of their heavenly father, and pray that a double portion of the spirit of Isaac W. Joyce may fall upon him who has been sent here to preside in his stead, yet we feel a deep sense of disappointment over the absence of our departed Bishop, and realize that we have sustained a personal bereavement.

Resolved secondly, That we express our deep sympathy for the bereaved family, and pray that God will give them sustaining grace.

Resolved thirdly, That the secretary be requested to transmit to the family a copy of this memoir and these resolutions, and to furnish our church papers a copy of them for publication.

Respectfully submitted,
C. C. Scott, for committee.

BISHOP STEPHEN M. MERRILL

In his valedictions to the last general conference, when he asked to be given a superannuated relation, Bishop Merrill, though far advanced in years, read a paper that fully sustained his reputation as one of the master minds of the church, and gave to the church a document which we believe will be read and revered as long as the church shall endure.

Coming among us of this conference nearly twenty-three years ago, his quiet demeanor, apparently childlike simplicity, ready wit, dry humor, perfect self control, combined with a determined will which was felt rather than seen, and a complete knowledge of every detail of business in the cabinet and in the conference. The members soon recognized that they were guided in their deliberations and controlled in their actions by a master in Israel. Grave and perplexing questions were soon simplified and settled, and the wheels of the conference ran smoothly and evenly. The memory of that session and of its presiding Bishop will always be fresh and pleasant.

We have watched his career ever since with increasing pride and admiration. Generous of nature, great in intellect lofty in spirit, the eagle-eyed nestor of the Episcopal Board has ceased from his labors and gone to his heavenly reward. On Sunday November 12, 1905, he preached what was his last sermon, at Fleet Street Church, Brooklyn, New York, selecting as his text Ephesians 1: 13, 14. He gave a masterful exposition of the doctrine of holiness. He retired about ten o'clock that night, and soon after became deathly sick and within twenty minutes, though attended by a physician who had been hastily summoned, passed away. He was self-possessed and conscious to the end. His last words were: "I am dying."

Bishop Merrill may truthfully be called a self made man having undergone privations in his youth and early manhood. He knew how to feel for and sympathize with others. He filled with honor and distinction very many offices in the church. Abundant in labors, weighted with years, honored and loved as few have been by the whole church, he went to his grave "In a full age like as a shock of corn cometh in his season."

"Servant of God, well done;
 "Thy glorious warfare's past,
 "The battle's fought, the victory won,
 "And thou art crowned at last.

Resolved, That as we bow in submission to the stroke of the Divine hand, we extend our heart-felt sympathy to the bereaved ones to whom the presence of this aged servant of God was a benediction, and to whose hearts his departure has brought great grief.

Resolved Secondly, That the secretary be requested to transmit to the family of the deceased a copy of this memoir and these resolutions, and to furnish the church papers a copy for publication.

Respectfully submitted,
 C. C. Scott, for committee.

A. B. MORRISEY.

Rev. A. B. Morrisey, a faithful and honored member of our conference fell asleep in Jesus, after a long spell of sickness lasting more than a year.

He was born at Lumberton, North Carolina, in the year 1858. He joined the church and was converted at the age of 15. Brother Morrisey joined the South Carolina Conference in 1894 and served several of the important charges, Sandy Grove, Chesterfield and Yemassee. He loved the church of his choice and was faithful in the discharge of the duties required of him. He was not a great preacher, but a good man. He is not dead, but sleepeth.

Servant of God, well done.
 Thy glorious warfare's past
 The battle's fought, the race is won,
 And thou art crowned at last.

MOSES C. COOK.

The subject of this sketch, Bro. Moses C. Cook, was born in Marlboro County in 1864. He attended the common schools in the above named county in boyhood, but in later years he matriculated at Claflin University and advanced some distance in the Normal department. He entered the ministry of the South Carolina Annual Conference in 1884, and was admitted in 1886. He served several important charges, and every where was an impartial administrator of the doctrine and polity of the church of his choice.

It was the writer's fortune to serve under him for two years as local preacher, and he can safely say that he was made better for having met him. Peacefulness of manner and fairness of dealing to all characterized his entire career. He was strict in his utterances and yet so gentle that the greatest sinner could quite easily see in every fiber of the gospel which he so delighted to preach, that "Unique Personality Christ Jesus."

He met his hardships, privations, disappointments and adverse circumstances in the spirit of endurance, mastery and conquest. To him earthly trials were but the forces which should work out for him a far more exceeding and eternal weight of Glory. And so they have, for on the 18th of March 1905, the messenger death preceded by angels with a chariot drawn by horses of fire summoned him to appear before the great white throne. To this command he gave a ready reply. He died in full triumph of the faith and was gathered unto his fathers.

In his death the church has lost a true hero. He was also an affectionate husband and father to his wife and children. He was to society, a tried friend; to his country, a loyal citizen; but in heaven a saint.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
 From which none ever wake to weep;
 A calm and undisturbed repose
 Unbroken by the last of foes.

Respectfully, L. W. Williams.

J. H. PARKS.

Rev. J. H. Parks was born in Anderson County in the year 1865, he joined the Mount Pleasant Methodist Episcopal Church in the north western part of the county, and in his early manhood he was happily converted, and for many years was a faithful Sunday-school teacher. He was called to the ministry and joined the conference in 1896. He was a loyal and a faithful minister for nine years. After a brief but painful illness he fell asleep in Jesus, May 23, 1905. He was laid to his last resting place at Columbia, S. C.

He left a loving wife and four children, with other kindred and friends to mourn their loss, which is Heaven's gain.

He is not dead for God took him. He lived well, preached well and died well.

Now toil and conflict past
 Go take with saints thy place;
 But go as each has gone before,
 A sinner saved by grace.

It is with much sympathy that we record the death of Willie Adline Howard and Emma Julia Howard. These two sweet flowers of earth were kissed away and transplanted in the floral gardens of heaven, there to bloom eternally.

Their little faces are gone, their sweet voices are hushed, their little bodies are returning to their natural element and we are sad. But very soon

We shall reach the summer land,
 Some sweet day, by and by;
 We shall press the golden strand,
 Some sweet day, by and by.

On July 30, 1905, in the town of Beaufort, S. C., the messenger death entered the home of Rev. B. M. Pegues and robbed him of his angel-like wife, and carried her to the land where the sun never goes down; for Jesus is the light thereof.

Mrs. Pegues was a personality of the highest type. She was born and reared in one of the best families in Cokesbury County, was converted early and lived so, until death.

She was indeed sweet spirited. To know her, was to love her. Her life was one that could win your affection, it seemed without an effort. She is not dead but sleepeth.

Sleep on sister, and take your rest,
We loved thee but Jesus loved thee best.

We will meet you in the sweet fields of Eden, where the tree of life is blooming.

J. A. Glenn, for committee

Mrs. Majarene Stewart, the beloved daughter of Rev. Simmons, Oakley, S. C. was born in Barnwell County, Nov. 13 1876, and died recently. She was baptized in infancy by Rev. Lisbon Johnson and was converted in old Bethel, at Charleston, S. C. under the pastorate of Rev. C. C. Jacobs D. D., but afterwards joined Centenary Church. She was educated at the Simonton Graded School in Charleston, and became an efficient teacher both in Sunday School and day school. She was a rare scholar, and won several gold medals while a student. But was always too modest to wear them. She was a devout christian and read the Bible through several times.

Mrs. Majarine Stewart was married last year; but when she was taken sick with the fatal disease, she asked to be taken back to her father's house. This last request was granted. Wherever her father preached, there she taught. She taught the children in the day and the older ones at night, and when Sunday came she would be found in the Sunday School teaching both young and old the word of God. She was a good singer, and taught all the people how to sing, and when the people turned out to her funeral, they sang the songs she taught them.

She organized benevolent societies among the people, by which the sick were cared for and the dead were buried. She told her father to have her funeral sermon preached from these words of St. Paul: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but to all of them also that love his appearing." Dr. Palmer of Charleston, went up and performed the last sad rites.

Brother Simmons has the sympathy and prayers of all his brethren, in this his sad bereavement.

She leaves a host of friends and relatives to mourn her absence. "Mother," said she,

'Twas dark, but the light came at last,
And flooded my soul with its gleam;
For truly the sky, is by cloud o'er cast,
And death is only a dream."

"Mother tell Father I've seen the bright host that God gave his son to redeem. I know that he will faithfully stand at his post. For death is only a dream."

John C. Martin

Divinity School

CLAFLIN UNIVERSITY

Orangeburg, S. C.

My Dear Brother,

Mr. John C. Martin of New York, has established at Orangeburg, S. C., a Divinity School in connection with Claflin University.

The object of this school is to afford to Ministers, Local Preachers, Exhorters, Sunday School Superintendents, Teachers and all Christian workers an opportunity for thorough and systematic study of the Bible.

Mr. Martin believes that Christian workers above all others should have an intelligent and comprehensive understanding of the great Book they are attempting to teach.

There are to be two classes of students, resident and non resident. That is to say that students can come to the University at Orangeburg and enter the regular classes or they can secure their books and study at home and send in at stated times their examination papers.

The course is to continue four years when all who have completed the work will be graduated.

Resident students will pay the usual University fees. Non resident or correspondence students will pay one dollar per quarter to cover incidental expenses such as printing, postage, clerk hire, etc.

The first book in the course covers the first five books of the old Testament. Price by mail 85 cents.

Please send your name, address and $1.85 to cover cost of book and three months tuition and begin your course at once. Address all correspondence to Rev. A. S. J. Brown, Dean, John C. Martin Divinity School or Rev. L. M. Dunton, D. D., President, Orangeburg, S. C.
